Howard named deputy director of Reentry and Integration Division

In September, Lisa Howard was appointed deputy director of TDCJ's Reentry and Integration Division.

Howard has more than 25 years experience working for TDCJ, including more than 15 years in supervisory positions. During her career she has served as both regional director and deputy director for the Private Facility Contract Monitoring Oversight Division, and most recently as director of Support Operations in the Parole Division.

Lisa Howard

Congratulating Howard on her promotion, RID Director April Zamora said, "Ms. Howard is a wonderful addition to the Reentry and Integration Division. She brings an exceptional amount of parole, contract monitoring and special needs experience that will be an asset to the division's overall operations. I am very pleased to have her on my team." ●
